

MONTHLY MEETING MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd - 2PM

On the agenda.....
--Holiday Show & Committee Reports
--Gallery Use & Maintenance

AT THE OCTOBER MEETING

Another meeting with good attendance by a mixture of associates and artists got underway on October 5th with the introduction of new artist members. The treasurer reported that the artists made more sales this year than in '91 and gallery attendance was impressive (figures not yet available.) The President reminded everyone of the dates for the Christmas show (see HOLIDAY GALA) and other happenings for the next few months. The '93 calendar will be developed in an executive session on the 19th.

There was a preliminary discussion of a landscaping project for the east side of the building. With the enhancement there would be the cost of maintenance. Interesting.....

Meanwhile for the interior, the plans for bookshelves in the foyer continue and the Doris Shaw Memorial Fund grows. Norm Legassic announced that Keith Shaw had sent his mother's art books to the LAA, along with a collection of art materials... drawing board, brushes, etc.

Our Fall Exhibition opened on a very rainy Saturday to a large and hardy group of gallery guests enjoying music in the Goodman Gallery, the juried PEOPLE, PEOPLE, PEOPLE show in the Cole Gallery, and an outstanding collection of members' work in the front galleries. The juried exhibit brought us more new artists to add to our broad collection of media and style.

THE END OF SUMMER

We mark the end of another summer show season when we have played host to guests from all over the country and the world. The show will continue until the pick-up date of Sunday, October 26th.

We were honored to be the setting for a wedding reception in our galleries this fall. On September 19th, Cecelia Cappiello of Lyme married Todd Maranda of Mystic and they chose the Lyme Art Association galleries for their post-nuptial celebration. With the floral pieces of rosemary, heather and white roses created by the bride and with the annual Members Show in the background, it was a charmingly colorful scene.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Cecelia, a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh and a sculptor/jeweler, is the granddaughter of our own late and admired members Fred Buchholz and ede-else. Fred was president of the LAA during the 1960's. Both Fred and Elsie were devoted and hard working members whose paintings continue to be cherished and coveted by patrons of the LAA. (We remember their never failing enthusiasm and believe they would have been very pleased to see the direction in which we are working today...ed.) Perhaps, we can look forward to showing Cecelia's sculpture sometime in the future.

A REMINDER TO ARTIST MEMBERS.....

It is assumed that each artist will be signed up with a working committee before the beginning of the '93 season..... We need everyone!

ARTISTS AT WORK

At the Goldsmith Gallery in Madison, ALFRED PERRY will be showing his oil paintings in A PAINTER'S IMPRESSIONS starting with the Saturday reception October 10 and on thru November 15. The gallery is open 11 to 4pm, Tuesday thru Saturday.....through the month of October, BARBARA MAISER has a watercolor showing at the PGN Library in Old Lyme.....in the quarterly WATERCOLOR '93 (a publication of the AMERICAN ARTIST magazine), LOU BONAMARTE will be featured in the Winter or Spring edition. In addition to his many far-reaching commissions, LOU has been selected as a juror for the NATIONAL ACADEMY OF WESTERN ART for their annual show in Oklahoma City in June '93.....at the Noah's Art Gallery in Stonington, SADIE DEVORE is exhibiting COASTAL SCENES from October 6th thru November 1st.....JANICE DIBATTISTA is taking part in MONOTYPES TODAY #11 at the 100 Pearl Street Gallery in Hartford which opens on Friday, November 13th and continues into January.....and JANICE is also showing with the Vangarde Group at the Hoxie Gallery, Westerly Library in Rhode Island along with PAM NELSON. The Westerly exhibit is November 10 thru December 9.....and the Arts & Crafts Association of Meriden (53 Colony Street) is presenting PAM J. NELSON, AQUA-MEDIA PAINTING November 12th thru the 28th. The gallery is open 12 to 4pm Tuesday to Friday and 2 to 4pm on Saturday.

HOLIDAY GALA

NOVEMBER 21 to DECEMBER 6

Our Christmas celebration gets under way with a reception on November 21st. The receiving date for work is Monday, November 16th - 10am to 4pm and the show will be hung on Wednesday, the 18th. Bill Kusche will be in charge and he is expecting a good group of volunteers to help hang and handle necessary paper work. The show will continue until Sunday, December 6th.

Everyone is encouraged to submit smaller and less expensive works for this show. Call Bill Kusche at 767-4923 and let him know you're ready to hang a show.....and don't forget the sitters roster.....and don't forget to bring in those favorite holiday treats to grace the punch table!

RECEIVING MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16th

EAST LYME ART LEAGUE

The East Lyme Art League will be filling the gallery with the League artist member show

INTERPRETATION OF LEAVES on November 7th.

Some members of the LAA are also part of the East Lyme group but we expect to see an interestingly different viewpoint displayed. The reception is 1 to 4pm on the 7th of November and will continue daily (except Monday) 11:30am to 5pm until the 15th.

FALL WORKSHOPS

The Fall schedule for the Workshop Program is slight, but chairman Norm Legassie has predicted more activity for Spring. Lou Bonamarte's oil class is starting on November 6th. His watercolor class will be organized after the first of the year. Our pool of instructors is very busy. The chairman continues to be receptive to new ideas for courses..... and teachers from the associate membership.
